

Our philosophy, combined with our selective aesthetics and accomplished through top quality materials (varying between rich cotton fabrics, Swiss handmade lace and natural organic materials) all contribute in creating an exclusive line of clothing for our beloved little ones.

All, designs are handmade and unique and are never repeated. This range of own brand products are complimented with a constantly developing partnership with leading Italian brands (such as Il Gufo, Mona Lisa and Papermoon), therefore increasing our clientele's range of options.

We have the greatest of respect towards children's pureness, sensitive psychology, their dynamics of emotions, enviable imagination and unique purity. It is thus that we approach the task of dowering a young child with his first clothes.
