

A child's christening is a priceless and timeless occasion. The sanctity of this ritual has inspired us to offer a full range of products and services to make it a memorable affair for all participants.

The decoration of the church, the sur mesure creations for the main protagonist of the day, the testimony of souvenirs guests and friends are an integral part of a story which is just beginning.

Our many years of expertise have made us realize that each christening is a new and unique challenge, for which we strive to provide the most perfect experience, and to ensure that this special day will